

National Post-Graduate School for Social Work and Social Services

Research Course: RESEARCH ETHICS IN SOCIAL WORK

The research course is a part of the research training programme of Nordic-Baltic Doctoral Network in Social Work (2009-2011) funded by NordForsk. Course is open to all Phd Students in Social Work.

For more information www.sosnet.fi/nbsw

TIME: 18- 20 March 2009

PLACE: University of Tampere, Tampere, Finland, Linna auditorium K113

PROGRAMME:

Wednesday 18 March

18:00 Dinner & Informal Meeting of Participants
(at participants' own expense)

Thursday 19 March

9:00- 11:00 Welcome to the Research Course Research Ethics in Social Work
Professor Tarja Pösö, University of Tampere

International, National and Situational Research Ethics
Development Manager, Arja Kuula, Finnish Social Science Data Archive

11:00- 11:30 Break

11:30- 13:00 Building an Ethical Approach to Social Work Research:
Priorities and Process
Professor Ann Davis, University of Birmingham, UK

13:00- 14:00 Lunch (at participants' own expense)

14:00- 18:00 Paper Sessions

19:30 Dinner
(at participants' own expense)

Friday 20 March

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 9:00- 12:00 | Paper Sessions |
| 12:00- 13:00 | Lunch (at participants' own expense) |
| 13:00- 14:30 | Sensitive Issues as Ethical Issues: Studying Ethnic Minority Youth in Prison
Senior Researcher Päivi Honkatukia , The National Research Institute of Legal Policy |
| 14:30- 14:45 | Break |
| 14:45- 16:15 | The NHS Research Ethics Process in England: Promoting Good Practice or Unnecessary Regulation?
Senior Research Fellow Chris Hall , University of Huddersfield |
| 16:15- 16:30 | Closing
Professor Tarja Pösö , University of Tampere |