

NBSW Summer school 6th-10th August 2012

Papers and presentations

Before the course, participants will be asked to submit a draft version of a paper (approximately 3000 words). Deadline is not later than the 15th of July 2012. During the course, papers will be presented and discussed.

4.0 credits: PHD-students who attend the summer-school shall bring a paper written in English concerning the students research connected to the theme of the course. An oral presentation is expected. A couple of references from the literature are to be used.

7.5 credits: PHD-students who attend the summer-school shall bring a paper written in English concerning the students research connected to the theme of the course. An oral presentation is expected. A final version of the paper (approximately 7000 words) is expected to be submitted to the course organizers by 24 of September 2012. A deepened written paper using more references from the list of literature is expected.